ELEXIR GODINEAU

THE WORLD'S GREATEST TONIC.

Sensational Review by the Press in France.

LE TEMPS.

The ELIXIR GODINEAU is now constantly talked of by the press, it is the constant subject of their articles and the talk of town and country: it is a first class strengthening and restoring tonic of miraculous power.

L'AUTORITE.

The marvellous properties of the ELIXIR GODINEAU having been duly proved by various experiments, this powerful specific is now universally recommended as the best remedy against anaemia, tuberculosis and all cases of exhaustion of the organic system in general.

LE FIGARO.

To make gold, and find out the secret of ever-lasting youth; such were the two problems which alchemists had tried to solve. The progress of science has shown the uselessness of the first, but it facilitated, on the other hand, the working out of the second.

Following out the eminent professor's theories a Paris chemist of high standing with the assistance of eminent practitioners, has prepared the Elixir bearing his name the ELIXIR GODINEAU the effects of which are surprising.

LE MOT D'ORDRE.

Several truly marvellous cures effected by the ELIXIR GODINEAU and which have been echoed far and wide, save given this specific universal popularity. Hence forth anaemia, rachitis, paralysis, senile degeneration will cease to exist. The ELIXIR GODINEAU rapidly, suppresses all these affections produced by partial or general exhaustion of the organic system.

L'EVENEMENT.

The fairy tale of the fountain of youth is now a true and real fact; old age still scatters a few wrinkles on the face, a few snowy flakes in the hair, but it can no longer chill the hearts of men to whom the high-mettled spiritness of a youth of twenty years of age, is restored by the ELIXIR GODINEAU, one of the valuable conquests of modern science.

L'ECHO DE PARIS.

The great success of the ELIXIR GODINEAU increases from day to-day, and is fully justified. This powerful specific restores health and vigor every day to numberless invalids whose cure was despaired of All weakened or debilitated organic systems are speedily strengthened after treatment with the ELIXIR GODINEAU, the effect of which is as sure as it is rapid.

DR. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR
"DIABETES SPECIALIST."
RARE AND INVALUABLE SERVICE FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."

The following are taken out of the numerous certificates received:—

Mr. Kanyalal Badridas, Cotton Merchant, Bombay, writes:—"I was suffering from 'Diabetes' for the last 12 years. Commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment. My urine was examined by the Bombay Municipal Analyst, S. P. Gr. being 1037 and Sugar 5-62 per cent. After treatment and on my urine being examined by the same Municipal Analyst and by Dr. N. H. Clubwalla, M.D., B.Hy. (Bom.), at Dr. Masina Hospital and Pathological Laboratory 'Sugar was found NIL' and S. P. Gr. 1013."

Mr. Bhailal V. Kothari, B.A., LL.B., late Vakil, High Court, Bombay, Now Nyab Dewan of Devgod Baria writes:—"I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known Doctors of Bombay, but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of Dr. S. R. Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each week progressed, the disease that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a Diabetes Specialist in name, but a Specialist INDEED IN REALITY. My S. P. Gr. was 1038 in the beginning of the course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of Sugar per ounce of Urine fell down from 24 to 'NIL', while dediments were not at all visible."

Miss Banoo F. Poacha, of Raipur, and Mr. N. H. Gazder Bombay, writes on 11-11-19. "We are pleased to inform that Dr. S. R. Iyengar, 'Specialist in Diabetes', cured Mrs. Framji Dadabhoy Poacha, of Raipur, who was suffering from Diabetes for the last five years. When she commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment on 27-9-19, the percentage of Sugar in the Urine was more than 5 per cent. when examined by Dr. Billimoria, M.D. After the treatment the Urine was examined on 11-11-19, by the Chemical Analyser, Bombay Municipal Laboratory, and was found to be: Sugar—'Nil.' We wish him all success."

The plaintiffs in this suit carry on business in Bombay as stevedores and contractors, and the defendant is the owner of certain premises, which in October 1919 were under process of construction on Plot No. 14 of the Ballard estate. By an agreement, dated 21st October, 1919, the defendant agreed to let and the plaintiffs agreed to rent the whole of the said premises for a period of five years, commencing from 1st November 1920 or any earlier date from which possession could be given at a monthly rent of Rs. 3,500, for use and occupation as offices and residence. At the date of the premises the foundation work of the premises had just commenced, and they were to consist of a ground-floor and three upper floors. It was expected that the building would be completed by 1st November 1920. The agreement had been brought about by the Bombay House Agency. The plaintiffs from time to time inquired through the said House Agency when the premises were likly to be ready. But they received no satisfactory reply. In February 1921 they wrote to the defendant complaining that the building work was progressing very slowly and requesting him to speed up the work of construction. The plaintiffs alleged that they were subsequently informed by the Bombay House Agency that the defendant did not desire to carry out the said agreement with the plaintiffs and that they had been instructed to find out other tenants who would be prepared to pay a higher rent than what the plaintiff had agreed to pay. The plaintiffs alleged that the premises were now almost complete and the defendant was bound to deliver possession thereof to the plaintiffs. The plaintiffs therefore, prayed for specific performance of the agreement to lease, and for damages.

DEFENCE PLEA

The defendant by his written statement admitted the agreement but contended that the said agreement was intended to operate as and was executed as a lease of the premises, and not merely as an agreement to lease. The document therefore required to be registered, and not being registered, the same was void and ineffectual. The defendant denied that there was any valid and binding agreement, and submitted that the plaintiffs were not entitled to specific performance of the alleged agreement.

Mr. Kania appeared for the plaintiffs.

Mr Munshi appeared for the defendant.

At the hearing the plaintiffs were prepared to waive their claim for specific performance and claimed damages in the basis that by defendant's default they were obliged to to take other premises on lease for a period of 5 years at a monthly rent of Rs. 7,000. They had let out portions of the new premises to different tenants and on an aggregate were realising Rs. 6,000 per month. They were thus making a loss of about Rs. 1000 per month under this second lease. The loss would come to Rs. 60,000 in 5 years. On the other hand if the defendant had given the plaintiffs the lease of his premises, they would have according to the arrangements made by them gained Rs 2,300 per month. The plaintiffs also claimed this loss of profit every month until they got possession of the premises by a decree of the Court. In the alternative the plaintiffs submitted that the difference between Rs. 7,000, the rent of the premises secondly leased and Rs. 3,500 the rent of the original premises viz. Rs. 3,500 per month, calculated for the full period of 5 years, should be awarded as damages. In any event, they urged they would be entitled to damages at that rate until possession would be given to them.

THE JUDGMENT.

His Lordship held that the document did not require to be registered as there was no present demise under the agreement. He further held that the defendants had committed a breach of the contract and the plaintiffs were entitled to specific performance. But the plaintiffs could not waive their right of specific performance and only claim damages. His Lordship accordingly passed a decree in favour of the plaintiff for specific performance, and ordered the defendant to give possession of the premises by 1st January 1922. His Lordship further awarded damages to the plaintiffs at the rate of Rs. 1,025 per month from 1st November 1920 to 30th April 1921, and at the rate of Rs. 3,000 from 1st May to 31st December 1920.

PUNJAB COUNCIL.

SPECIAL GRANT OF RS. 30 LAKHS TO DIST. BOARDS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, July 28.

At the Punjab Legislative Council to-day Maulvi Muharram Ali Ghisti moved a resolution recommending that the number of the Indian Civil Service posts listed as open to the members of the Provincial Civil Service in the Punjab be raised at once to one-fourth of the Superior Service posts in the province. An amendment was moved by Mian Shah Nawaz to the effect that the proportion thus reserved shall in no way affect the proportion of the appointments to be reserved for members of the legal profession. The amendment being accepted by the Council the resolution as amended was put to vote and carried.

Mr. Ganpat Rai then moved a resolution recommending to Government to provide rupees thirty lakhs in addition to that already provided in the Budget, as a special grant to District Boards of the Province for the purpose of inculcating free primary education in the area within their jurisdiction for the year 1921-22. A large number of non-official members strongly supported the resolution, recapitulating in this connection the services of the late Mr. Gokhale for the cause of primary education and appealing to the Education Minister to accept the resolution and provide the money prayed for. Mr. Fazli Hussain, Education Minister, had not concluded his speech when the Council adjourned till to-morrow.

THE BURMA COUNCIL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, July 27.

At the Legislative Council to-day the debate on the question of separation of Burma from India motion for adjournment to 26th August to allow the public to express their views was carried 12 votes to 10 officials voting freely. A resolution advocating re-imposition of rice control in the interest of the local consumer was withdrawn after a lengthy debate in which recent speculative dealings were largely discussed. Sir Abdul Karim Jumal when speaking vigorously against suggesting speculation had raised retail prices was regulated by the Lieut-Governor to confine himself to the subject of the motion and avoid personal references. The trend of debate was that the local retail rice was not unduly high considering the world-wide conditions, recent increased demand from Java and elsewhere and high paddy prices. A motion to introduce the Gambling Act Amendment Bill to prohibit bucket shops evoked suggestions by two Burmese members that all the gambling should be declared illegal. The Gambling Bill and also the Rangoon Rent Act Amendment Bill were introduced and referred to a Select Committee.

ESSEX V. AUSTRALIA

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, July 27.
Recd. 11-45 p.m., July 29.

Weather was fine at Southend, and five thousand spectators were present, when the match between Essex and Australians began to-day, on a hard and fast wicket. Douglas was not playing and Perrin skippered the Essex side. Perrin scored 28 not out. A fast bumping ball from Gregory hit him under the heart and he had to be carried off and medically attended to, but later he pluckily resumed. Gilligan scored 31. Gresory had five wickets for 44 and Mailey four for 48.

Australians scored easily, Bardsley getting 59, including eight fours, and Collins 101 (not out.)

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, July 27.
Recd. 5-30 p.m., July 29.

At the close of the first day's play at Southens to-day between Essex and the Australians, Essex had all been dismissed for 126 and the Australians were 192 for two wickets.

FOURTH TEST MATCH.

SPLENDID BATTING BY ENGLAND.

CENTURY BY RUSSELL.

(By our Special Commissioner.)

LONDON, July 25.

The Australians showed themselves a very ordinary side to-day, at Manchester. Merely because McDONALD and Gregory had proved themselves somewhat faster than any bowlers seen in England for some years the England batsmen have been At a disadvantage when Australian conditions also obtained. To-day there was a great change for the wicket was neither hard nor fast to that Gregory and McDonald were practically reduced to commonplace bowlers. With the changed weather conditions I quite anticipated this. This should have been the case in the First Test Match at Nottingham but there was not rain enough. When to-day McDonald had 112 runs hit off him for no wickets, Gregory 79 for one wicket and Armstrong had worked for 33 overs for 13 maidens 57 runs and 2 wickets England had made a good start reminiscent of the days of Hobbs and Rhodes. Previous first wickets this season had fallen for eight, twenty-three, twenty-three, nil, and fifteen and therefore sixty-five, was most satisfactory for England. After this promising start England never looked back and there were partnerships of eighty, seventy-two, forty-three and a hundred and two. Following upon the example of Ashton of Cambridge, Philip Mead of Hampshire and John Kerr of Greenock, Russell showed how a century could be hit. It is true that Armstrong twice missed Russell but innings nevertheless was a most meritorious one. The Australian batting would have been handicapped had they batted first because the Australian batsmen are not used to such wickets which are eminently suitable to English bowlers. The wicket was slow but not difficult and, as I have maintained all along, the Australians are not equipped for any wicket but a hard and fast one. Manchester Test Matches have always been remarkable for something uncommon. England once lost there by three runs; the double hat trick was performed; and now comes a declaration by an English skipper which was ultra vires because, as there was no play on the first day, the match automatically became a two-day match and rules 54 and 55 applied. At a quarter to six the English team was called in. Fifteen minutes later the two English batsmen returned. Their return was the signal for an outburst of bad feeling on the part of the ignorant crowd. Tennyson however addressed the crowd from the stand and play was resumed. There was some remarkably good batting and some extraordinarily good fielding in the country by Pellew and Taylor but the bowling was off colour. Fender while batting did what was at once a very clever and a very dangerous thing namely whenever Armstrong had delivered his ball Fender jumped round and received it left-handed, thus being able to negotiate leg-breaks which, to a left-handed batsman, come wide on the off stump.

"Come on." To-day's racing looks very open and if there is one tip I would offer it is keep off the favourites and go slow.

On their previous records I would give the following fair chances:—

THE ALEPPO PLATE. (Division I.)—Distance 5 furlongs.

AMERICA by a win at Kirkee lately shows him to be in fair form and as he is known to be best at 5 furlongs I give him 1st place. MAGDALA is perhaps better over a distance but the company being poor should be there or thereabouts MOREED on his last win in Bombay showed quite good form and should get a place.

THE ALEPPO PLATE. (Division II.)—Distance 5 furlongs.

I like the only lady in this lot. As a rule newly landed horses amongst Arabs generally improve a stone between Bombay and Poona and if FIRJAH is only a little better than she was in Bombay should win. SAMMY will probably be a short head behind as he takes a particular delight in just getting beaten within the last 50 yards. ALIGARH with a strong ride should not be out of place.

THE ALEPPO PLATE. (Division III.)—Distance 5 furlongs.

On some old running I fancy CENTRY to win with AEROPLANE and WHITE ROSE close up.

THE STOCKTON PLATE. (Division I.)—Distance 7 furlongs.

The way BOX O'TRICKS won over 6 furlongs in Bombay beating some very useful ones in hot timing I fancy him best though he hasn't shown "Form" over 7 furlongs. Of those that we know can get the distance I like DIALECT, ANOTHER NIGHT and MY PATSEY.

THE STOCKTON PLATE. (Division II.)—Distance 7 furlongs.

If GIPSY'S ADVICE has the services of W. Huxley this old warrior will be hard to beat. Having won in Bangalore only the other day we know he is quite fit and then WHITE BELL who had a big chance has been taken out. JAPANESE PINE is nicely handicapped and may be dangerous. CLAIM A should not lose a place.

THE BEGINNERS' PLATE.—Distance 5 furlongs.

If POLYO RAMA doesn't feel the humiliation of going out in this company he should have no difficulty in winning with PINE TREE and MISS GOODENOUGH taking places.

THE C. B. TRIAL PLATE.—Distance 6 furlongs.

Personally I shall have nothing to do with this race but fancy the race will be between SUGAR CANE and MAIDEN PALM with STEEL BLUE third.

THE EPSOM PLATE.—Distance 6 furlongs.

This looks like being a match between EUDOXUS and WE TWO unless BRUCE LODGE is fit in which case it would be a one horse race.

THE MOHAMMERAH PLATE. Distance 6 furlongs.

KOOLEB with 7-7 will want all the beating that any of the others can muster. The other are all "HAS BEENS" with BEADMAKER and TIGER perhaps the best of the bunch.

EASTERN THEORY OF CIVILISATION IN KENYA.

OBJECTION TO ITS IMPOSITION ON EUROPEANS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, July 27.
Recd. 2-30 p.m., July 29.

In the House of Commons Mr. Lyle asked whether in view of feeling amongst the Europeans in Kenya at the suggestion that the Eastern Theory of civilisation, instead of the Western, should be imposed on them and the Natives, the Government would recommend that a Royal Commission should, investigate the whole question of the Indians in Africa, since the principle adopted in one part must affect all the others.

ROYAL COMMISSION REFUSED.

Mr. Churchill responded that he was reluctant to have recourse to a Royal Commission in this connection, unless other means failed.

MONOLITH IN MEMORY OF DOVER PATROL.

OPENED BY PRINCE OF WALES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, July 27.
Recd. 2-30 p.m., July 29.

The Prince of Wales today unveiled the granite monolith in memory of the Dover Patrol on the Leathercotes Point, Dover, which overlooks the seas which were so splendidly guarded by them during the war. The Prince in the course of a speech paid a generous tribute to the Patrol's service and sacrifices. Later he proceeded to Walmer, Folkestone and Aylesford and everywhere met with a great reception.

PARIS-MARSEILLES EXPRESS HOLD-UP.

HOW THE ROBBERS LOOTED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, July 26.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., July 29.

Paris.—The robbers, who held up the Paris-Marseilles Express today secured a booty to the value of 26,000 pounds sterling. Mr. Morucci, a Communist Deputy, was shaken out of his sleep and started to explain that he was a Communist but the bandits the replied, "You dirty bourgeois! Give up your money" whereupon Mr. Morrucci handed over his purse containing sixteen pounds. Another passenger was robbed of 21,500 pounds.

AN AHMEDNAGAR MOSQUE

A QUESTION IN COUNCIL.

The Director of Information writes:—

In your issue of 27th July you pubish a list of questions which were disallowed at the last Delhi meeting of the Legislative Assembly. One of these questions asks:—

"Is it a fact that in the compound of the bungalow of the Collector of Ahmednagar, a mosque is being used as a stable?"

May I point out that a similar question was asked by Mr. S. B. Khateeb on Monday last at the meeting of the Bombay Legislative Council at Poona, and the following reply was given on behalf of Government:—

"The mosque situated in the Collector's compound is not used as a stable. The Collector's horses are kept in the stables provided for them in another part of the compound."

MUSLIM FEELING.

(TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE.")

Sir,—The mouths of Mr. Lloyd George and Lord Curzon must be watering now, when they hear of Greek Successes in Asia Minor. They were anxious to intervene when the Turks were advancing in the Ischmidt peninsula and even drew a line beyond which the hated Turks—the only Asiatic race that could so far stem the tide of Western aggression—should not cross But now that the Greeks are advancing, they are pleased to stand at a distance and watch with a bewildering neutrality—which they may not be pleased to have described as benevolent. What a difference! Let them know that their partiality is spreading disaffection throughout the length and breadth of the Muslim world. The sooner they realise the evil effects of their mistaken policy the better for the tranquility and peaceful administration of MoslemCountries. This is the time for the British Government to display their honesty of purpose and disinterestedness and win back the affection and confidence of the Moslem world, by intervening and giving peace to the Middle East, on the lines suggested by many eminent and justice loving Englishmen also among whom are many experienced Ex-Viceroys of India. Moslems nay, I presume to say India, will not rest satisfied until the Turkish Thrace and Asia Minor are wholly under the Turks.—Yours, etc.

Impressive speeches were delivered on the noble work done by the great patriot during the whole of his life and on the complete boycott of foreign cloth and adoption of Charka in every home before the 1st August. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

WHY DESTROY FOREIGN CLOTH.

(TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE.")

Sir,—According to Mahatma Gandhi's appeal regarding the boycott of foreign cloth, startling activities are made in every part of the city as well as the country to do away with such cloth. House to house collection of boycotted cloth is also in progress, and huge masses of the so much valued clothing from Europe are carried to the Congress Committee's stock depot either for destruction or for being exported to Turkey.'

However be the worthlessness of such cloth yet the price once paid for it to the foreigners is already out of the country's hands. The destruction, therefore, of such clothing is rather a loss than anything else to the nation's purse. Can it not be saved and the money well used till Swadeshi cloth is firmly established in the market?

Millions of beggars are dying here in cold without having a single piece of cloth to cover their shivering frames. Poor women, as the newspaper reports show from time to time, are committing suicides, being ashamed to disclose their nakedness to the world.

Can these poor and helpless souls not be comforted by opening the store of foreign cloth at the disposal of the committee, for their use and a free distribution of cloth effected among them? Will not the emotion of the patriots condescend to look to this humble suggestion?—Yours etc.,

THE RATNAGIRI BRAHMINS.

(TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE.")

Sir,—In your report of the public meeting held under the auspices of the Parsi Rajakiya Sabha on the 19th July at the Marwadi Vidyalaya, a gentleman is reported to have said at the meeting that "if the Bhandaris gave up their licences, the Brahmin Nationalists would take them up as was done in Ratnagiri some years ago." This, Sir, is merely a wanton and unwarranted attack on the Nationalist Brahmins of Ratnagiri. The statement is intentionally misleading and inaccurate inasmuch as the Brahmins who had once taken the liquor contract from Government can in no sense be called Nationalists. The contract was taken long before the Nationalist party as such came into existence and one of the two contracting partners who is still living, is a Gaud Saraswat, an avowed co-operator occupying a seat in the Local Legislative Council. The other partner is now no more and he too could not be classed among the Nationalists. So the attack made upon the Nationalist Brahmins as a class is unfounded and baseless.—Yours etc.,

SWADESHI AND BOYCOTT.

LECTURE AT CHINCHBUNDLR.

Under the auspices of the Provincial Congress Committee a meeting took place in Hirji Seth's Godown at Chinchbandar at 9 p.m. yesterday. Mr. C. R. Das was to have presided but owing to his unavoidable absence, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad took the chair and he was decorated with a garland of hand-spun yarn by a child of 5 years. There was a very large gathering and the spacious hall presented a sea of Gandhi caps. The volunteers were actively engaged in collecting foreign caps, which were exchanged for Gandhi caps. Thus a large heap of them was collected. Among those present mention may be made of Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, Pandit Rambhuj Dutt Choudhary, Lala Goverdhan Das, Pandit Jawarlal Nehru, Messrs. V. J. Patel, and Yakub Hussein and Dr. Kitchlew. They all spoke on Swadeshi and boycott.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.
Saturday, July 30, 1921.

GET ON OR GET OUT.

The Imperial Services, headed by the Indian Civil Service, are on the ramp for further increases in their salary, and signs are not wanting that the Government, which is representative of the Services, will yield to the new clamour. Mr. Montagu had a year ago to propitiate the Services with special offerings in the shape of money-doles, and, immediately after that gift, the rest of the Imperial Services demanded proportionate enhancements. The cycl has just been completed, with the Chaplains bringing up the rear, and now the turn is apparently for the Civil Service to begin the clamour again and set another example of extortion. From the tax-payer's point of view it is an oppressive entertainment and, reform or no reform, it has got to stop. Most of the provincial Governments are in a state of suspended insolvency, while it was for the purpose of window-dressing that Mr. Hailey estimated the expenditure of the current year at a crore less than that of last year. In spite of new taxation, the revenue realisations of the year are not in keeping with the estimates and if reports speak true, the Finance Member intends to bring in supplementary budgets at the next session of the Legislative Assembly. In addition to the present demand, which is being canvassed in Parliament without reference to the capacity or discretion of India to pay, there is an agitation liberally to compensate insubordinate and restive members of the Services who treat the Reforms as unworthy of faithful adherence. From the reply given by the Secretary of State to Colonel Yate on the subject of the terms on which Indian Civilians might retire, it is evident that Government are getting ready for an "announcement."

The demand, which is coupled with the stunt of conscientious retirement, is audacious and is of a kind that would not be entertained by any patriotic Government. For, what is the grievance of the Civilians? As we understand it, the grievance consists of an aversion to obey the behests of Parliament as defined in the Government of India Act 1919; or, as the phrase goes, conditions have become "uncongenial". It is well-known that Ministers have no disciplinary control of the Imperial Services which have to execute their policy. The immunity is destructive of discipline, as the control of policy is being transferred to the Indian legislature. Nevertheless, in order to pamper the members of the "heaven-born" Service, the course was adopted to the discomfiture of Ministers, and now what they want is a liberal premium on resignation. If the prize for bluff and revolt is made attractive enough, many will be prepared to retire on unearned fortunes and fish for a career elsewhere.

On principle, the tolerance of a rebellious spirit in the Services is a scandal. No Civilian was engaged on the understanding that perfect autocracy would be maintained in India, and when change is authorised by Parliament, it is their business to get on or get out. The pretence now is that any approach to responsible Government is obnoxious to their moral sense and that they find it revolting to serve under the new conditions obtaining in the country. If the Civilian had been commissioned to worship graven images or to murder or to perjure himself or to do anything else equally offensive to his moral scruples, he could have fairly complained on conscientious grounds, but the implicit reason of revolt now is that it does not suit him to obey anything resembling the authority of the people. The new conditions have been authorised by Parliament and it is ridiculous of the Secretary of State to go about consulting his subordinate officers after the event and to offer a solatium in consideration of their contempt for the Statute. If they cannot administer according to authorised policy, there is a clear case of incompetence or ill-will and the best course is to allow them to act on their responsibility and make room for better executors of the law. We are not concerned with the troubles of Mr. Montagu who, to buy peace, offered, time and again, attractions to serve and gifts to depart in silence. If through a spirit of insubordination, Civilians are constrained to go—it is bluff till retirement is made worth their while—the State should not be saddled with the cost of maintaining the faithless emigrants in idleness. Still, the idea of a gift, capitalised or recurring on separation, is being discussed as a legitimate right. Suppose to-morrow an Indian is authorised to serve in a high place in the army, are the subordinate Sahibs to be free to sniff and ask for a little fortune on which to retire? The project is impossible of acceptance without a grand loot of the Indian Treasury. Nor is there any reason why the raid for cash should stop at that. Recently a few Europeans in Calcutta wrote to the Press that if they were paid three lakhs each, they would retire "Home". The claim of the private citizen seems to be as fair as that of the covenanted officer of the State. "Conditions have changed and we feel them so irksome. We began our careers in the land because we had hoped that the native would be kept in perfect subjection. Conditions have changed and India is no place for us. Give us a decent compensation for the transfer of residence." Such in fact has been the tone of disgruntled reactionaries, and the appetite is apparently shared by Government officials.

The comic audacity of the latest clamour is illustrated in the proposal that he who continues must have the inducement of extra cash while he who goes must also have the pleasure of a retiring fortune. When the ten Moderates of the United Provinces apologetically referred to the recent rapacity of the Services, Lord Reading gave them the cold shoulder. He believed in the "legitimate" apprehensions of the Services and the need of enhancing the "attractions" of the Services; all for the sake of India, of course, and without reference to any attempt at holding the Reform to ransom! To the average Englishman, the I. C. S. offers the finest "screw" in the world, as every reader of penny papers that prescribe short-cuts to affluence, is constantly reminded. The Reform transition is being fully exploited, and everyone who got increments since June 1920, realises the psychology of the Secretary of State in his post-Reform predicaments. The "Pioneer" dilating on "an urgent matter" argues in this manner: "If it is necessary for the success of Reforms that he (i.e. the Reform loyalist) is to have in the military and civil services, the best type of European, it is essential that European be paid in such a way as to enable him to live at least in the same comfort as he does at Home." The brood of "loyal Indians", to whom the "Pioneer" appeals, may credit the fanciful suggestion of the European at "Home" being ministered to by two dozen servants and resplendent chaprassis. The Civilian at "Home" does not regard the perquisites of the Nabob as among the comforts of existence. One of the Moderate politicians who in 1919 went to strengthen Mr. Montagu's hands—he is now a Minister—was astonished that an ex-Governor whom he visited should have busied himself about taking his cloak and tending the fire with his own hands. The Moderate choked at the sight. The magnifico of a hundred durbars, the creator and preserver of Khan Bahadurs, and the recipient of breathless loyalty, was seen to be quite properly waiting on himself. The ex-Governor smiled at the expression of his visitor and whispered to him slyly that it was "Home and not the Government House." Except for climatic variations, the European Civilian enjoys material comforts of a princely order, things to which his "Home" compeer is a stranger. The Bobby at Home who is stifled in a two-roomed tenement can have a comparatively palatial residence as a deputy-superintendent or as a cocoanut expert in this country. While the realities of existence in India are dissimilar to those described by the "Pioneer" in the course of its comparative study, it is absurd, on public policy, to think of further increments at present. The cost of living, as assessed by commodity prices, is less now than last June when our friends showed their expectation of favours to come. The salaries of the Services have always been rated at a measure too onerous for this country. Originally it was the equivalent of the divers emoluments of fortune-hunters in the Service of the East India Company. While the Imperial Services are unreasonably clamouring for further increments and lawless advantages, the non-gazetted Services have been ignored and in some grades actually sweated. A decent body of public servants would have first attended to the wants of their subordinate establishments before heiping themselves.

Notes of the Day.

Wrong and Unfortunate.

The Government of Bombay would do well to note, if they attach any value to public opinion, that the disappointment at the extraordinary verdict of the President of the Legislative Council is not confined to Nationalist quarters alone, but is shared also by the Moderates. "The Servant of India", whose editor, we have reason to believe, had recently been to Dharwar to make independent enquiries into the recent disturbances, declares that Sir Narayan Chandavarkar's ruling, "which has the effect of choking off the discussion of a subject that has aroused the utmost interest throughout the Deccan and Karnatak" is, "as wrong as it is unfortunate." Our contemporary is as much surprised as we are at Sir Narayan's declaration that it is the business of the Special Court that has been set up at Dharwar, to find whether there was any justification for the firing that occurred. As our contemporary says, this question will not come up before the Court at all, except indirectly. In this connection "The Servant of India" has published an extract from the speech delivered by Sir Ibrahim Rahimtulla as president of the All-India Muslim League in 1913, dealing with the firing at the Cawnpore Mosque, which Sir Ibrahim's colleagues in the Government of Bombay may profitably peruse. "Is it too much to ask," said Sir Ibrahim on that occasion, "that every official, however well-placed he may be, and whatever his status in the service of Government, should always have before his eyes the knowledge that far from receiving the unqualified support of the higher authorities in such a matter he will have to satisfy an independent tribunal of the circumstances which justified him in taking the lives of unarmed people? As I have already pointed out, it is necessary in the interests of the good name of the British Government, in the interests of officials, upon whom the grave responsibility of giving the order to fire is imposed by law, and in the interest of the general public, that the safeguard I have indicated should be provided."

Indian Members' Duty.

Now that Sir Ibrahim is a member of the Government, our contemporary has urged that he should exert his influence with his colleagues to secure an impartial investigation of the conduct of the police. Our contemporary, says: "The extent to which he succeeds in influencing the Government's decision on this matter will indeed be regarded as the test of the power which Indian members wield in the new Government outside their own sphere." It is unnecessary to recall here the part Sir C. Sankaran Nair played in connection with the Punjab tragedy. It is for the Indian Members to justify in the eyes of the world the high professions of their past careers. It is not too late still for the Government of Bombay to yield to public opinion and satisfy the requirements of bare justice. Will they do so or will they let public judgment go by default against themselves and their servants? It is for the Government to decide.

"When Muslims Give."

"When the Muslims give, they give," said one who sat near us in the Jumaa Masjid yesterday when, following the fervent appeal of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and another most eloquent preacher, a shower of caps and clothes of foreign make from the huge congregation fell into an open space beside the minbar, soon forming a great mound of cast off clothing. When Muslims give they give ungrudgingly, without reluctance and without regret. The universal brotherhood of Islam; the duty of every Muslim no matter what his country or his [illegible] to his Muslim brethren in distress [illegible] home to the heart of every [illegible]; the duty to defend the [illegible], which represents the King [illegible] earth, by every honourable [illegible] liable to unarmed men in [illegible] was made plain to everyone [illegible] was a scene of emotion [illegible] passing description. [illegible] may have been regarded [illegible] for apathy in this Swadeshi [illegible] the point of [illegible] to Islam and [illegible] them in a [illegible] that their [illegible]

Minimum Wage.

A very useful resolution was moved and defeated in the Bengal Council. Mr. Krishna Ray Chaudhari moved for the establishment of Industrial Boards to determine a minimum wage for industries in Bengal. Mr. Chaudhari produced sound reasons for arresting the undue exploitation of Labour and the discussion makes it apparent that vested interests combined to defeat the proposal. Labour legislation has no chance in plutocratic bodies. Mr. Ray specially referred to the sweating wages in the tea-industry where men got Rs. 10 a month as the maximum. The spokesmen of the tea industry eluded as usual the exact mention of figures and affirmed that "coolies" just prospered. They opposed the proposal on three grounds: (1) there was some sweating in small industries but not in the big ones (2) sweating was impossible in the tea and coal industries (3) a minimum wage would cause ca'canny and discourage skill. As to ground number one, why should capitalists object to small industries being regulated if they have nothing to fear in respect of large ones? They are the proprietors of large concerns which according to them do not allow of sweating. Why then this dog-in-the-manger policy towards small industries whose reform would not cost them tuppence? As to reason number two, the actual figures of wages are no longer a secret now and the facts produced by Mr. Chaudhari contradict the pretensions of the capitalist. Ground number three can be met only by flat denial. The plea that minimum wage in other countries occasions the decline of technical skill, is both silly and false: but then the resolution had to be defeated and there was no one to force the hands of Government and capitalist.

Wanted More Family Budgets.

Whenever the question of wages is discussed, there is a hurried reference to the budget of the worker, which is regarded as the maximum of his rights within the industry. Our Labour Bureau has been good enough to give us outlines of the workman's needs. Will it now proceed a step further? Let us have an enquiry about the reasonable family-budgets of managing agents and financiers who make fortunes out of industries. Why should the inquisition be confined to the worker? The advantage of finding out the real needs of the profit-takers is this: if their emoluments are allowed for according to their real requirements, it may be possible to allot the surplus balance (now heedlessly absorbed at one end) of the industry every year, for the benefit of all who contribute to its prosperity. We are not offering a precise solution of industrial troubles, but while we hear so much about the bare needs of the worker, we have an insatiable curiosity to know of the requirements of the masters to live in health. The capitalist might be in panic to hear of the notion, but let our statisticians give us some facts touching this aspect of the case as well. Then we shall tell them something.

Flogging.

A Malabar journal reports that the Divisional Magistrate at Calicut awarded recently ten stripes to a Bangalorean who was charged before him with the offence of having stolen a thermos flask belonging to a member of the local firm of Messrs. Pierce Leslie and Co. The same magistrate awarded a similar number of stripes to a "jutka" (hackney carriage) driver for "running over a Moplah." It is difficult to account for this official's predilection for flogging as a punishment in preference to fine or imprisonment. We wonder what the Bombay Jehu or the taxi-driver will say if he were offered the choice of being flogged instead of being treated to a fine or a few days' sojourn in His Majesty's "guest-room." Mr. Thomas, if he still presides over the destinies of the district might profitably divert his attention to the activities of his subordinate.

The Cattle Pound.

A representative of this journal, who paid a visit last week to the cattle pound situated near Kennedy Bridge, Bombay, assures us that the conditions prevailing there are in no way exaggerated by the Secretaries of the Bombay Humanitarian League in their letter to the Commissioner of Police, which we published on Wednesday. Our representative when he arrived at the Pound in the evening found nearly a hundred head of cattle in the pound and there was not a drop of water in the two or three small troughs. He found thirsty cattle coming to the troughs and going away ruefully. What agonies must they not have suffered the whole night before the precious liquid became available to them early in the morning! Our representative asked one of the officials attached to the pound whether there were any arrangements for storing water for the use of cattle after the stoppage of water supply from the municipal mains in morning and evening. He said there was no such arrangement! Thus, if, say, at 8 a.m., the troughs are emptied by the cattle, till, perhaps, 4 a.m. the next day the cattle would have to go without water. Our representative actually found this to be the case, as no water was available for some days past in the evenings from the municipal mains. The absence of storage arrangements at the Pound is a grave scandal, which must be put an end to in the interests of humanity, as the cattle are thereby made to suffer acutely. The arrangements for feeding the cattle with hay are also defective and the weaker among them are liable to starve, because the stronger ones, in the absence of proper supervision from the officials at the pound, are found to monopolise the fodder. We would strongly advise the Police Commissioner and some of our City Fathers too to pay surprise visits to the Pound and convince themselves of the woeful state of things prevailing there.
